TUBE OR BOTTLE?

HOW ABOUT TOTTLE

PRODUCT HIGHLIGHT

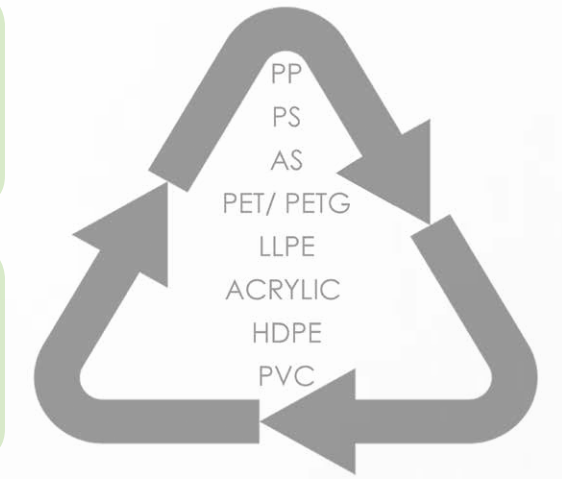

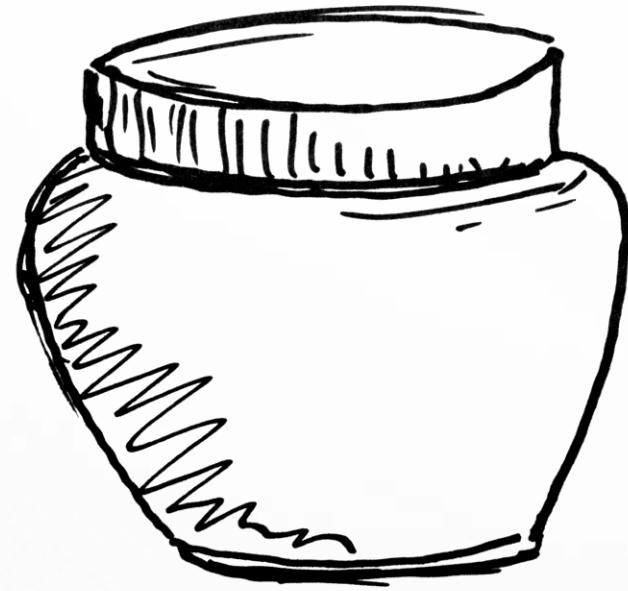

Take a look at this creative tottle with built-in brush applicator. This client was looking for a new and innovative way to brush an industry first rubberised compound tape onto hockey sticks, in a way mobile for players. UDI was able to modify an existing mold and provide the customer with a functional package, in a very short period of time. Just one example of completely customized packaging,

JARS

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING TRULY UNIQUE?

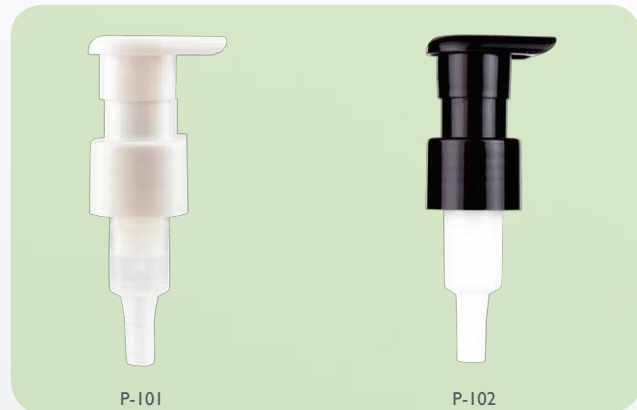

Jars are commonly an overlooked item in a packaging line-up, but often house some of the most popular products. With the growing stock collection and the ability to provide completely customized packages, you are always able to pick the perfect packaging option.
